

2022 By the Numbers

Facility
construction
and renovation

$2.8M

Value of skills-based volunteer time, a three-fold
increase over 2021

$2.2M

Value of volunteer construction and renovation projects, double the value of 2021.

10,000

under-resourced youth
reached through construction
career and education modules.

92%

of volunteer hours pro-bono or skills-based.
Compared to 26% among top companies
in 2022 Points of Light report.

Career and education guidance
for youth

33

Build Up High School Interns

70%

plan to be first gen
college students.

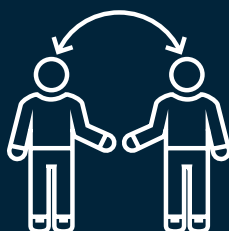

96%

identify as non-white,
half are young women.

BUILDING POSSIBILITIES

INCREASING DIVERSITY IN THE INDUSTRY

From Our Partners

“DPR is a huge part of our success from year to year. Not only financially but as a knowledge base for areas that are not our forte.”

—Boys & Girls Clubs of San Dieguito, San Diego, CA

Operational support for nonprofit partners

DPR Foundation

$13M

Unrestricted grants to organizations
supporting under-resourced youth
since 2008.

34

current grant partners,
average relationship six years.